

Frequently Asked Questions

Why are you only advertising some of your homes?

We are gradually reintroducing advertising and bidding to ensure that we are able to carry out structured moves in a safe manner for customers and staff.

How many homes will you be advertising?

To begin with, we will only be advertising a very small number of properties. This is in order to ensure that we can carry out viewings, sign ups and final fixes in a way that is safe for both teams and customers. The number of homes advertised each week will go up gradually.

When will services return to normal?

We are currently looking at how we may be able to fully resume the allocation and letting of available homes in accordance with social distancing guidance; but this may take some time. It is important that we put in place measures which will keep our staff and customers safe.

What is happening with my Mutual Exchange that started before lockdown?

All mutual exchange services will remain on hold for the time being and will be re-introduced alongside the gradual increase of CBL services.

I want to carry out a Mutual Exchange with another tenant. Can I still do this?

All new mutual exchanges requests have been put on hold until further notice. You will be able to apply for permission once normal service resumes. You cannot carry out an exchange without permission.

What about bids I have placed just before lockdown?

Any bids made on or since the last bidding cycle that commenced on Wednesday 25th March have been cancelled and all active adverts have been withdrawn. This means any bids made since 25th March will not count.

Will my previous bids be honoured?

All bids made prior to midnight Monday 23rd March will be honoured. You don't need to contact us, we will contact you in the normal way through the housing office who will call you to make all the necessary arrangements in accordance with current safety guidelines.

I can't see any properties to bid on when I log in?

You will only be able to bid on properties that you are eligible for with the right amount of bedrooms and adaptations. As we are letting properties gradually there may be some weeks where there isn't anything you are able to bid on. If the information on your application is incorrect you can update your application on the Leeds Homes website.

I'm homeless and have nowhere to live. What do I do?

All possession proceedings in both private rented and social housing continue to be on hold and/or cancelled. If you are roofless tonight, the Housing Options emergency team will call you back as soon as they can, 0113 222 4412.

I'm worried about my medical needs in relation to my housing and I need to move urgently. What do I do?

You can call the Independent Living Team Duty Line on 0113 3784900. You'll need to leave a voicemail with your details and someone will call you back as soon as they can, usually on the same day.

My circumstances have changed since the crisis and I need a new assessment. What do I do?

If you are entitled to a new assessment due to a change of circumstances, call Housing Options on 0113 222 4412. Someone from the team will contact you back via phone to do this. Timescales for contact will depend on the urgency of your situation.

Will I lose my priority if I'm unable to bid?

You will not lose your priority because you can't bid.

When my priority expires will I still be able to apply for an extension?

All priority awards that are due to expire will automatically be extended for a further 6 months. You don't need to contact us or take any further action.

What if I am offered a property but I am unable to move due to self-isolation?

The property will be held for you until you are able to move and normal services resume.

Can I still register to bid?

You can still apply to bid and your application will be fully registered as long as you have provided all of your proofs digitally. If you are unable to provide your proofs digitally, you can still apply online but will need to wait until the community hubs and one stop centres are re-opened to provide your proofs and have your application fully registered.

Please note we will not be processing garage applications or letting garages until further notice. Please do not contact us with any queries relating to letting a new garage.
